Rocco Zito Joins Metropolitan Commercial Bank's Great Neck Team

GREAT NECK, N.Y. - January 10, 2017 — Metropolitan Commercial Bank recently announced that Rocco Zito has joined the Bank's Great Neck team as vice president and relationship manager. Mr. Zito, an East Northport native, brings over a decade of experience working in Long Island's banking industry.

"Rocco has a deep understanding of the unique opportunities of the Long Island marketplace. His knowledge and skills will be invaluable to both our business and personal banking clients," stated Laura Capra, Senior Vice President and Head of Retail Banking. "Our mission is to provide our clients with insightful, personalized service to help them build and sustain wealth. Rocco shares the entrepreneurial spirit of our clients and I am sure he will be a tremendous asset to our Great Neck team and the many Long Island communities we serve."

Prior to joining Metropolitan Commercial Bank, Mr. Zito worked as a relationship manager at Citibank's Port Washington branch, managing a portfolio of diverse clients. "Delivering specialized and individualized services to clients has been a vital aspect of my banking career," stated Mr. Zito. "I look forward to continuing that approach here at Metropolitan Commercial Bank, developing long-term, mutually rewarding relationships with our clients that will support their financial health, helping them to achieve their business and life goals."
